Agreement for Receiving Course Lecture Materials

Under Section 504, Subpart E Postsecondary Education, of the 1973 Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act, institutions of higher education must provide reasonable accommodations to a student's known disability and may not deny equal access to the institution's programs, courses, and activities. Obtaining a copy of the course lecture materials, including copies of overheads and multimedia presentations, is a reasonable accommodation for students whose documentation calls for this accommodation.

The Faculty/DSO have right to require a student who receives course lecture materials (including copies of overheads/multimedia presentations) to sign and present the form to the instructor.

As a qualified student with a known disability, I have been granted the reasonable accommodation to receive lecture materials (including copies of overheads and multimedia presentations) for courses in which I am enrolled. Due to academic integrity issues and the possibility that some of the materials may be under copyright, I agree to abide by the terms of this Agreement as a condition for receiving the course lecture materials.

I (print student's name)  agree that I will not release, allow anyone to see or copy (including making a backup copy of electronic materials) the instructor's lecture notes overheads, or multimedia presentations. Additionally, I agree that neither will I profit financially, nor will I allow others to benefit personally and/or financially by using the course lecture materials I receive in

(Course Number, Course Title, Instructor)

At the conclusion of the semester, I agree to return the course lecture materials to the faculty member. I understand that a violation of this Agreement may subject me to discipline under the Code of Student Conduct or subject me to liability under copyright laws.
